This week's Torah portion is "Matot-Masei"

The name of the Parshah, "Matot," means "Tribes," and it is found in Numbers 30:2. The name of the Parshah, "Masei," means "Journeys," and it is found in Numbers 33:1.

Moses conveys the laws governing the annulment of vows to the heads of the tribes of Israel. War is waged against Midian for their role in plotting the moral destruction of Israel, and the Torah gives a detailed account of the war spoils and how they were allocated amongst the people, the warriors, the Levites and the high priest.

The tribes of Reuben and Gad (later joined by half of the tribe of Manasseh) ask for the lands east of the Jordan as their portion in the Promised Land, these being prime pastureland for their cattle. Moses is initially angered by the request, but subsequently agrees on the condition that they first join, and lead, in Israel's conquest of the lands west of the Jordan.

The forty-two journeys and encampments of Israel are listed, from the Exodus to their encampment on the plains of Moab across the river from the land of Canaan. The boundaries of the Promised Land are given, and cities of refuge are designated as havens and places of exile for inadvertent murderers. The daughters of Tzelafchad marry within their own tribe of Manasseh, so that the estate which they inherit from their father should not pass to the province of another tribe.

TORAH GEMS:

"Glory in His Holy Name, may the heart of those who seek Hashem be glad." (Psalm 105:3)

Indeed, you have the unique opportunity to add sanctity to His Holy Name by giving glory to His Holy Ark (Radak). Chazah Zion points out that God's Holy Name, 'Adonai', has a numerical value of 65, which equals the value of 'Halal', glory, praise.

In the pursuit of material gain, happiness depends upon the attainment of one's aim; thus the seeker is dissatisfied because he still lacks the object of his desire. Such is not so in the search for God, however, for in this case the seeking and the finding occur simultaneously. A person who dedicates himself to seeking God has found God to be the ultimate good fortune; therefore he rejoices while he seeks (Rav Yosef Albo).

Adapted from Artscroll's "The Writings; Psalms" by Rabbi Nossom Scherman / Rabbi Gedaliah Zlotowitz, 2018, page 461.

Victor Hovland wins the 2026 Travelers Championship, his 8th PGA Tour title!

Congratulations to our 2026 Champion, Viktor Hovland!

Viktor Hovland and Scottie Scheffler returned to TPC River Highlands Monday morning to determine the winner of the Travelers Championship.

Both men finished regulation tied at 21 under par and, because of a late weather suspension on Sunday, needed an extra day for the extra session. It only lasted one hole.

Hovland birdied the par-4 18th from 6 feet while Scheffler missed his 3-foot effort to extend the hole. With his triumph, Hovland earned $3.6 million. Here's how the full $20 million purse was paid out in the final signature event of the season.
