<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tXy72ss3fkY>

Nelly Korda claimed her first U.S. Women's Open title in dramatic fashion at Riviera Country Club. She shot a final round 2-under 69 to finish at 8-under overall, holding off Charley Hull and Gaby Lopez by a single stroke to capture her second consecutive major of the season.

Another major title for one of the biggest stars in women's golf.

Congratulations to Nelly Korda on her impressive victory at the US Women's Open at The Riviera Country Club, adding yet another remarkable chapter to her career.

RBC Canadian Open Champion – Bud Cauley

Bud Cauley just had to sink a 10-inch putt to win the RBC Canadian Open but when he looked up and saw his wife and two children by the 18th green he had to take a step back and wipe tears out of his eyes to make sure he made the shot.

After the brief reset, Cauley rolled the putt in to end a 15-year wait for his first PGA Tour championship.

The American shot a 5-under 65 for a two-stroke victory over England’s Matt Fitzpatrick at the Canadian Open on Sunday. Cauley’s drought on the top circuit in men’s golf lasted 239 tournaments.

“That’s a moment I’ve thought a lot about. Even last year a couple times when I was in contention my family wasn’t with me and it would always cross my mind that hopefully for my first win everyone would be here,” said Cauley at his post-win news conference. “I had to try to not think about it a lot today.

Located just 30 minutes west of Edmonton in Parkland County, Grouse Nest Golf Course offers a peaceful escape from the city. Whether you're driving out from Edmonton, Spruce Grove, or Stony Plain, you'll find a scenic 9-hole course carved from mature forest — plus a driving range!

Grouse Nest has a beauty that makes a round of golf memorable not only for the game, but for the place itself. The natural setting is home to many species of wildlife and a wide variety of flora.

During your game, you might hear our namesake grouse drumming its wings in a mating call or chance upon a nest of duck eggs. Deer, rabbits, foxes and moose are memorable watchers from the gallery.

The name of swallows the mutineers, and a fire consumes the ketoret-offerers.

A subsequent plague is stopped by Aaron's offering of ketoret. Aaron's staff miraculously blossoms and brings forth almonds, to prove that his designation as high priest is divinely ordained.

God commands that a terumah ("uplifting") from each crop of grain, wine and oil, as well as all firstborn sheep and cattle, and other specified gifts, be given to the kohanim (priests).

the Parshah, "Korach," refers to Korach, head of the rebellion against Moses and Aaron, and is found in Numbers 16:1.

Korach incites a mutiny challenging Moses' leadership and the granting of the kehunah (priesthood) to Aaron. He is accompanied by Moses' inveterate foes, Dathan and Abiram. Joining them are 250 distinguished members of the community, who offer the sacrosanct ketoret (incense) to prove their worthiness for the priesthood. The earth opens up and

TORAH GEM: "Halleluyah"

"Sinners will cease from the earth, and the wicked shall be no more; Bless Hashem, O my soul, Halleluyah!" (Psalm 104:35)

The word Halleluyah is a composite of "halelu" and "yah" (meaning "praise Y-A-H"). Whether it is to be written as one word, two words, or with a hyphen, is the subject of disagreement among the Talmudic Sages.

Rabbi Samuel bar Abba observed that although this is the 104th psalm, it is the first to include the word [Halleluyah], Praise God. This occurs after Scripture states: The sinners will cease from the earth and the wicked will be no more.

Only then does the Psalmist declare, Halleluyah, because as Solomon said (Proverbs 11:10), When the wicked perish, there is joyous song (Midrash Shocheh Tou; Radak).

YIDDISH CORNER ...

(a-BI ge-ZUNT) As long as (you're) healthy.

If we had to choose one Yiddish expression that best epitomizes Jewish experience and attitude, this might be it.

Regardless of what we have suffered and endured, it says, if we have our health we're still kicking! It was used years ago in a song with words by Molly Picon: "Abi Gezunt, Kenen Mir Gliklach Zayn" (As Long as We're Healthy, We Can Be Happy).

A popular modern version of Molly's song:
