TORAH PORTION “EMOR” IN A NUTSHELL ...

The name of the Parshah, “Emor,” means “speak” and it is found in Leviticus 21:1.

The Torah section of Emor (“Speak”) begins with the special laws pertaining to the kohanim (“priests”), the kohen gadol (“high priest”), and the Temple service: A kohen may not become ritually impure through contact with a dead body, save on the occasion of the death of a close relative. A kohen may not marry a divorcee, or a woman with a promiscuous past; a kohen gadol can marry only a virgin. A kohen with a physical deformity cannot serve in the Holy Temple, nor can a deformed animal be brought as an offering.

A newborn calf, lamb or kid must be left with its mother for seven days before being eligible for an offering; one may not slaughter an animal and its offspring on the same day.

The second part of Emor lists the annual Callings of Holiness—the festivals of the Jewish calendar: the weekly Shabbat; the bringing of the Passover offering on 14 Nissan; the seven-day Passover festival beginning on 15 Nissan; the bringing of the Omer offering from the first barley harvest on the second day of Passover, and the commencement, on that day, of the 49-day Counting of the Omer, culminating in the festival of Shavuot on the fiftieth day; a “remembrance of shofar blowing” on 1 Tishrei; a solemn fast day on 10 Tishrei; the Sukkot festival—during which we are to dwell in huts for seven days and take the “Four Kinds”—beginning on 15 Tishrei; and the immediately following holiday of the “eighth day” of Sukkot (Shemini Atzeret).

Next the Torah discusses the lighting of the menorah in the Temple, and the showbread; (lechem hapanim) placed weekly on the table there.

Emor concludes with the incident of a man executed for blasphemy, and the penalties for murder (death) and for injuring one’s fellow or destroying his property (monetary compensation).

TORAH GEM: Proverbs and Parables

The commentators (Radak, Ralbag, Rabbeinu Bachya, et al.) elaborate that the prophets used parables as a literary device to make difficult subject matter comprehensible to the student.

King Solomon uses parables to convey the lessons of chochmah and mussar, and the ethical and intellectual values. R' Bachya (Kad HaKemach) quotes the Sages to illustrate the function of parables. Someone lost a precious stone in the dark. He knew it was there, but could not to see it. By lighting a small wick for just a second, he was able to find his jewel.

Thus, a virtually worthless strand of cotton assumed great value because it enabled someone to find a valuable gem. Similarly, a parable is but a simple story; properly used, however, proverbs and parables act as flashes of light to penetrate the darkness.

Similarly, the Aggadic sections of the Talmud and Midrash often speak in allegorical terms to cloak deeper meanings.

A Mahjong Movie ...

A Hallmark Movie about Mah Jongg Is Coming

People have a lot of feelings about "All's Fair in Love and Mahjong."

A new Hallmark movie about mah jongg is coming, and well, people have feelings.

Last week, Hallmark announced that a new movie, titled "All's Fair in Love and Mahjong" with the tagline "Every tile leads to a new connection," will be premiering on the Hallmark channel May 9, 2026. As their website describes, the rom-com will tell the story of Ronni, "a school nurse [who] finds unexpected hope through teaching Mahjong, the centuries-old Chinese game that helps her build community and open her heart again."

The Jewish Roots of Rummikub

Growing up, I was always proud of the fact that the inventor of my favorite game, Ephraim Hertzano, was Israeli like me.

By Lior Zaltzman Apr 22, 2026

Some of my favorite childhood memories are of sitting on the floor surrounded by white rectangular tiles adorned by colorful numbers and creepy smiling jokers. My father was often away for work, and between my two younger siblings and me, my mom wasn't often available for quality one-on-one time, but games of Rummikub were the rare exception.
